

INDIE ROCK FROM VIENNA

Four friends, two guitars, bass and drums — driving guitar rock with a playful lightness.

Bunski is an indie rock band from Vienna. Four friends—vocals, two guitars, bass, and drums —with a sound that oscillates between driving guitar rock and playful lightness. Melodies that get stuck in your head, riffs that get under your skin, and a backbeat to tap your feet to.

Influences: The Strokes, Arctic Monkeys, Franz Ferdinand, The Beatles.
